

Petrone Print is an innovative, boutique publisher that has pioneered multiple successful book series in Estonia, including the My World series of travel books, the Behind the Iron Curtain series of memoirs, and the beautifully illustrated Family Tales series for children. Our company has an eye for the personal, natural, and unconventional. Each one of our books is an unforgettable encounter that awakens readers to a better understanding of the world around them.

Fall 2015

CLOUD AFTER CLOUD

by Epp Petrone, illustrations by Kamille Saabre

ISBN 978-9985-9848-8-8

24 pages, hardcover, 200 x 200 mm, 7.9 x 7.9 in.

"This story is about something that happened to me when I was six years old and staying in the countryside with my grandmother and grandfather. It was the last summer before I had to go to school and one day, while I was sitting in a tree, I witnessed a miracle ..."

Cloud after Cloud is Epp Petrone's poetic homage to the wonders of nature. It is a tale for children and for those who are children at heart.

I GIVE YOU A RIVER

by Epp Petrone, illustrations by Kamille Saabre

ISBN 978-9949-511-96-9

32 pages, hardcover, 200 x 200 mm, 7.9 x 7.9 in.

"I give you this morning because I love you ..."

This lyrical text by Epp Petrone carries a message of gratitude, closeness, and affection. The journey in this book takes place during one day, when a parent and child take a boat out on a river. Just as a river flows, the illustrations flow from one page to another.

Artist Kamille Saabre has painted the characters in such a way that they could be male or female. That way every mother, father, son, and daughter can identify with the characters in this beautiful book.

MARTA'S TOES

by Epp Petrone, illustrations by Piia Maiste

ISBN: 978-9949-479-76-4

92 pages, hardcover, 195 x 195 mm, 7.7 x 7.7 in.

Marta's Toes is the debut book in our popular Family Tales series, unique collections of short stories, where each story is illustrated and stands alone. This is the world through the eyes of Marta, a little girl growing up near a big city beside the sea. It is a world of bugs that talk and bath bubbles that whisper, airplanes that wave and monster vacuum cleaners. Most of all, it is a world of questions.

Epp Petrone originally crafted this collection of personal stories as a gift for her daughter's birthday. Each tale springs from everyday life but is full of child-like curiosity. Complemented by beautiful illustrations by artist Piia Maiste, it has become a bedtime favorite.

ANNA'S TEETH

by Epp Petrone, illustrations by Piia Maiste

ISBN: 978-9949-511-27-3

92 pages, hardcover, 195 x 195 mm, 7.7 x 7.7 in.

One day, Marta's parents take her for a walk and tell her the news: "We are going to have a new baby." So begins Anna's Teeth, the next book in the Family Tales series. Mommy tells Marta that this baby is as tiny as her pinkie. But after Anna is born, she doesn't stay small for long, and that's when the trouble starts. What happens when Anna tries to play with Marta's favorite doll? Or when Marta tries to teach her sister how to calculate with candies, but Anna only wants to eat them? These girls' days of games, fights, and making up are captured here in short stories and funny pictures.

LEENA'S LAUGH

by Epp Petrone, illustrations by Piia Maiste

ISBN 978-9949-511-97-6

84 pages, hardcover, 195 x 195 mm, 7.7 x 7.7 in.

Leena's Laugh follows Marta's Toes and Anna's Teeth. The main character in this book is the family's newest member, baby Leena, and her memorable experiences, from swimming in her mother's belly, to her birth, and her first year of life with big sisters Marta and Anna. Some of the stories are told through the eyes of the older children, but most are told from the perspective of Leena, who can still recall the time before she was born when she was just an angel.

Design not available yet

FURRY'S PURR

by Epp Petrone, illustrations by Piia Maiste

To be published in December 2015,

cover in development

The main character of this book is a striped cat named Furry who comes into the lives of three sisters — Marta, Anna, and Leena. Adopted from an animal shelter, Furry has to catch the mice who have secretly moved into Marta, Anna, and Leena's home. But does Furry even know how to catch mice? And do the girls know how to speak the cat's language? Does little Leena know how to play with the cat? How much does the cat understand? And what happens when the cat escapes from the window and disappears?

These short adventurous stories teach young readers to better appreciate the world of animals.

Petrone Print OÜ
Küütri 16, Tartu 51007
Estonia
Tel: +372 740 4584
info@petroneprint.ee

DREAM TRAIN

by Andry Ervald, illustrations by Jarõna Ilo

ISBN: 978-9949-511-74-7

137 pages, hardcover, 195 x 195 mm, 7,7 x 7.7 in.

Andry Ervald was a well-known teacher, journalist, translator, and author of fairy tales, gathered for the first time in this collection. There are stories about broom soap, a royal dust rag, a ride in a magical dream train, a girl who walks on ceilings, and how all the important things depend on cabbages. Andry's fairy tales are playful, absurd, philosophical, and, in part, very realistic.

PEDRO THE POODLE AND THE APOLOGY GIFT

by Leelo Tungal, illustrations by Kirke Kangro

ISBN 978-9949-511-55-6

112 pages, hardcover, 150 x 215 mm, 5,9 x 8.5 in.

This is the story of Liisa, an 11-year-old girl living through problems at home and school. Liisa's father gives her Pedro the Poodle as a gift at a time when he has left the family to live with another woman. Pedro gets Liisa into many adventures, and introduces her to her new friend Aive, whose father runs a big company and whose mother holds a high position in Brussels.

ANIMAL STORIES

By Epp Petrone, illustrations by Ilmar Trull

To be published in December 2015,

cover in development

Epp Petrone grew up with a pet-crazy mother and her veterinarian grandfather. In her life she has known many cats, hamsters, chickens, several dogs and rabbits, not to mention having some adventures with mice, roosters, pigeons, and monkeys. These short stories are about life and death, joy, mourning, and love.

Petrone Print OÜ
Küütri 16, Tartu 51007
Estonia
Tel: +372 740 4584
info@petroneprint.ee